

RENEE' MORRIS

Renee' has owned dogs for over 40 years including breeds such as Doberman Pincher, Rottweiler, Pembroke Welch Corgi, Labrador Retriever and French Bulldog. With a background in competitive show horses, where she professionally trained and instructed exhibitors, the transition to dog sports became natural. She is an AKC Evaluator for CGC, Trick Dog and Farm Dog certification. Renee's Labrador "Cassie" earned her RACH in Rally and Trick Dog Performer Elite titles. Her French Bulldog "Abbey" was awarded a Top 10 placement at the AKC's 2022 & 2023 Rally Nationals at the young age of 2 years. She is also very active in agility with her dogs earning numerous titles, including MACH (Master Agility Championship) and PACH (Preferred Agility Championship) and competing at the AKC Agility Nationals and Westminster Kennel Club prestigious Westminster Agility Championship trial. Her French Bulldog "Brandy" has been recognized by the French Bulldog Club of America as the 2022 Top Agility dog and earning an invite to attend the 2022 AKC Agility Invitationals. Additionally, her French Bulldog "Abbey" is the #1 Rally French Bulldog in the country (2022). She also competes in Barn Hunt, Obedience, Scent Work and FastCAT. Renee' is in the process of obtaining her AKC Rally judge's license. She currently teaches Rally classes at TKC and enjoys working with handlers and their companion to develop as a team.
