

How to Access Members Only Section on TKC Website:

For Members:

On the top right of the Website page you will see “TKC Members register/sign in here”, and below that you will see; login/sign up. Click on that.

This will prompt you to set up a User ID and Password.

Once you have done this then you will request approval for access to the Members section.

This page is monitored frequently and access will be approved once your request is made.

For Non-Members:

On the top right of the Website page you will see “Members Section”; click login. This will prompt you to set up a User ID and Password.

Once you have done this then you will request approval for access to the Members section.

You must first become a member to TKC before being granted approval for access to the members only section.

This page is monitored frequently and a notice will be sent to you stating that you must first become a member to TKC before access to the members only section will be granted.
